| 1 | Nature of the tasks: Unit B3 of the Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology forms part of the Electronic Communications Networks and Services Directorate. This is the Directorate which runs major policy projects key to the functioning of electronic communications markets, such as the overall EU regulatory framework, the Roaming Regulation or Recommendations aiming at consistently and effectively regulating termination rates and next generation access networks. Unit B3 is entrusted with applying the Commission's oversight power in relation to national regulatory measures in all Member States. It thus ensures both the efficient development of telecommunications markets in Europe and effective cooperation between the national authorities and the Commission, to the benefit of consumers. The national expert will, under the supervision of a Commission Official, assess draft regulatory measures proposed by national regulatory authorities, in the context of Article 7 of the Framework Directive 2002/21/EC. These measures cover in particular the definition of markets, the designation of undertakings with significant market power and remedies. He/she will contribute to the preparation of decisions to be adopted by the Commission and notified to Member States' authorities. He/she will further work in horizontal projects relating to relevant markets or regulatory remedies. |

- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU official languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU official language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one Community language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

- diploma: A university degree or equivalent giving entitlement to undertake postgraduate studies

- professional experience:

- Sufficient professional experience relevant to the mission of the Directorate;
- Sufficient experience in the sector of electronic communications networks and services, and in particular in the field of developing and/or implementing the rules governing the sector in a ministry, national regulatory authority and/or a competition authority;
- Expertise in competition or regulatory law is an asset;
- Solid understanding of EU decision making procedures;
- Ability to work as a team member and maintain excellent relations with officials at all levels inside and outside the Commission, in particular with national administrations;

Candidates must be nationals of EU Member States.

- language(s) necessary for the performance of duties: The SNE must have knowledge of two Community languages. For the execution of these duties the knowledge of English is required. The knowledge of French is recommended.

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage. Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm.

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security.

Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B2. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 13 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
