

Governance of Science and Research Integrity:
Agencies, Researchers, Case studies
2nd International Workshop
Heraklion-Rethymno, Greece, 6-9 September 2017

Wednesday, 6 September 2017

Pre-Workshop: "Data Integrity" Tutorial, Hellenic Bioinformatics-10 Conference, FORTH, Heraklion, Greece, 6 September 2017; Sponsored by project DEFORM
Chair:	Vasiliki Petousi, Project DEFORM
18:00-18:30	Predating data: Integrity of methods and statistics Ioannis Ioannidis , Stanford University
18:30-19:00	Misconduct and data: privacy, accountability and responsibility in (big) data in social science Gemma Galdon Clavell , Eticas Research & Consulting, Spain
19:00-19:30	The European Research Council position on data integrity and scientific misconduct Nektarios Tavernarakis , FoRTH, ERC
19:30	Light Reception On-site

Thursday, 7 September 2017

Workshop-Day 1 "Governance of science and research: Agencies, Networks and Regulation", University of Crete, Heraklion Campus, Computer Science Department, Room K206
Pick up from Hotels (approximate times) Ibis or nearby: 08.30; Galaxy 08.45
08.30-09.15 Transfer to Voutes University Campus, University of Crete, Heraklion
09.15-09.30	Registration
09:30-10:30	Welcome and orientation of participants - Chair: V. Petousi Representative UoC; Representative UoC Research Ethics Committee; DEFORM project Co-Coordinator (Sylvie Fauchoux; Caroline GansCompe)

	Workshop Organizers
10.30-11.15	Integrity and European Institutional Approaches - Chair: A. Kuyumdzhieva Integrity of Science: A European Policy Perspective” Albena Kuyumdzhieva, DG RTD ,Ethics Sector Research integrity: policy and practice at the ERC” Laura Pontiggia, ERCEA
11.15-11.45	Break: Discussion and networking over coffee
11.45-12.30	Governance of Research Integrity: Networks and Associations - Chair: G. Galdon Clavell The ENERI project and the EARTHnet initiative Panagiotis Kavouras, National Technical University of Athens Dealing with Research Ethics on the operational level Nik Claesen, EARMA
12.30-13.15	Governance of Research integrity: aspects of regulation - Chair: T. Garani - Papadatos Research integrity and EU Law: part of EU’s responsible innovation narrative or a mere coordination exercise? Michail Kritikos, STOA/EPRS-Policy Analyst “TBA” Petros Tsantilas, University of Peloponnese/ Hellenic Authority of Personal Data Protection
13.15-14.15	Lunch: ‘Nourishing’ discussion and networking
14.15-15.00	Governance of research integrity: definitions and guidelines Chair: M. Kaiser Revision of the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity: Drivers, approaches and challenges in a multi-system context. Maura Hiney, Science Europe Integrity and responsibility of the researchers. Ethical views. Michele Leduc, CNRS, COMET
15.00-15.30	Break: Discussion and networking over coffee
15.30-16.15	From the journal publisher’s point of view - Chair: I.I oannides Responsible research: importance of authorship and gender issues Ana Marušić, University of Split Elsevier’s position on Publishing Ethics” Ian Smith, Elsevier
16.15-17.00	Misconduct and governance of research: Case study Greece Chair: T. Philalithis

	The Greek policy concerning the H1N1 pandemic Melpomeni Malliori: National Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece The critical points for avoiding Research Misconduct in R&D Programmes Asterios Chatziparadeisis, General Secretariat of Research and Technology, Greece
17.00-17.45	Transfer from location to Hotels and city center/Museum
17.45-19.00	Suggested activity: Archaeological Museum of Heraklion Downtown Heraklion
19.30-21.30	Implementing 'dietary' integrity through Cretan Food Restaurant Peskesi Downtown Heraklio

Friday, 8 September 2017

Workshop-Day 2. "Focusing on research", University of Crete, Rethymno, Center for Research and Studies in Humanities, Social Sciences and Pedagogies (CRS), (DEFORM's 'home' in the UoC)
Pick up from Hotels (approximate times) Ibis or nearby: 8.30; Galaxy 8.45 8.45-10.00 Transport to Rethymno
10.00-10.30	Welcome over coffee Representative UoC, Director of CRS, Department of Sociology
10:30-12:00	The DEFORM project-Results, Reflections on processes Chairs and Discussants: M. Rauhala, Research Ethics Coordinator, TU Wien A. Bottomley, EORTC Belgium Ethics Task Force - DEFORM Research integrity and big data: reproducibility vs adequacy Caroline GansCombe , INSEEC, Project DEFORM Experts views on research misconduct-Preliminary findings Eirini Sifaki , UoC, project DEFORM, Vasiliki Petousi , UoC, project DEFORM Perceiving and engaging in Research Misconduct: Preliminary results of DEFORM's on-line survey Georgia Koumoundourou, IoannisTsaousis, Vasiliki Petousi , UoC, project DEFORM
12:00-13:00	Lunch: Food and thoughts
13:00-13.45	Gender dimensions in research Chair: V. Petousi Sex and Gender in Research Design and Reporting Carolyn Ells , McGill University.
14.00-14.45	Promise and responsibility Chair: N. Foeger Contested Research Economic Imaginaries: The case of 'Knowledge Exchange' in the UK" Caterina Psarikidou , Lancaster University

	Science integrity and industrial pharmaceutical development: Any pitfalls?" John C Lukas , DYNAKIN, SL, Drug modeling & Consulting
14.45-15.15	Coffee break on site
15.15-16.00	Cost and consequences of science fraud and research misconduct - Chair: C.Gans-Combe Fraud and plagiarism: the masked costs for academia and society" Michelle Bergadaà , Geneva University What Happens After Scientific Misconduct?" Ivan Oransky , Co-founder Retraction Watch
16.00-16.45	Governance of research integrity: national activities/initiatives - Chair: S. Fauchoux Integrity in and quality of science Matthias Kaiser , University of Bergen, Norway Raising Awareness via national and European Networks on Research Integrity Nicole Foeger , Austrian Agency for Research Integrity, ENRIO
16.45-17.15	Overview and closing of workshop - Workshop Organizers, Project Partners, Ethics Task Force
17.15-17.45	Transfer to Rethymno
17.45-19.00	'Stretching our legs" in town in a guided tour - Old Town Rethymno
19.30	Dinner: No misconduct. Guaranteed! Downtown Rethymnon
21.30-23.00	Transport to Heraklion

Saturday, 9 September 2017

Workshop-Day 3 (Tentative schedule) Project General Assembly, University of Crete, Heraklion, Historical Museum of Heraklion, Amphitheater
10:30-12:00	Stakeholders' community non -virtual meeting All invited
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Workshop assessment and forward planning DEFORM partners

Organizing Committee

Valia Aggelaki aggelakivalia@hotmail.com

Tina Garani-Papadatos sgarani@esdy.edu.gr

Ioanna Kaiserli ikaiserli@uoc.gr

Vasiliki Petousi petousiv@uoc.gr

Eirini Sifaki eirini_sifaki@yahoo.gr