

You are a student or recent graduate from Greece and interested in promoting SOCIAL JUSTICE, DIVERSITY and HUMAN RIGHTS?

Apply now to the Humanity In Action Fellowships in Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen and Warsaw as well as in Atlanta and Detroit!

Humanity in Action is now accepting applications for the Fellowship Programs 2018. They take place in Europe from June 8 to July 8, 2018 and in the United States from July 10 to August 5, 2018. The costs of participation in the Fellowships are fully covered.

Intensive and demanding, the Humanity in Action Fellowship brings together international groups of students and recent graduates to explore national histories of discrimination and resistance, as well as examples of issues affecting different minority groups today. Each program is highly interdisciplinary and features daily lectures and discussions with renowned academics, journalists, politicians and activists, as well as site visits to government agencies, non-profit and community organizations, museums and memorials. The programs seek to highlight different models of action to remedy injustice.

As a requirement of participation, Fellows implement a hands-on outreach initiative, an Action Project, in their home communities after the Fellowship. During the programs, Fellows will develop their project ideas and receive skills training relevant to project planning, management and implementation.

The Fellowship programs seek to educate, connect and inspire future leaders in the fields of human rights and social justice. Participation in the Fellowships gives access to an international network of more than 1,700 committed students and young professionals around the world and internship opportunities in high-level institutions.

Applications are due on February 18, 2018. Please contact us with any questions you may have at germany@humanityinaction.org.
