

WORKSHOP

Knowledge Democracy in School

Tuesday, 22 October 2019, Michelis Room, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies

PROGRAM

17.30: Registration and Welcome

18.00 – 18.30: Building knowledge democracies in Schools: Overview of the Significance, the Potentials, and the Challenges, Lonnie Rowell, Associate Professor (retired), University of San Diego, USA.

18.30 – 18.50: Fostering Knowledge Democracy in contemporary school through multimodality and autoethnography, Eleni Katsarou, Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies

18.50 – 19.10: Indicative teaching and learning practices on Knowledge Democracy, Kostis Sipitanos, PhD Candidate, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies

19.10 - 19.30: Coffee Break

19.30 – 19.50: Discussant: Manolis Dafermos, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology

19.50 – 20.50: Discussion

21.00 Dinner